

EPCH opens Mumbai office and motivates members to move from 'Good to Great'

3th February 2014

EPCH opened its Mumbai office on 3rd February, 2014 and organized a motivational seminar-Good to Great. The occasion was graced by Mr. A B Joshi, Textiles Commissioner; Mr. S S Gupta, Development Commissioner (Handicrafts); Dr. P Nair, Secretary, Textiles Committee; and Mrs. Renu Shome, Director, EU Chambers of Commerce in India. Also present were, Mr. Lekhraj Maheshwari, Chairman-EPCH; Mr. Amir Zaveri, Convenor, Western Region, EPCH; Mr. OP Prahladka, Convenor, Eastern Region, EPCH; Mr. K L Ramesh, Convenor, Southern Region, EPCH; COA members, EPCH - Mr. Ravi K Passi, Mr. Raj Kumar Malhotra, Mr. Subhash Kawatra, Mr. D Kumar and Mr. Prince Malik; and Mr. Rakesh Kumar, Executive Director, EPCH.

Mr. Roshan Suhail, motivational speaker from M/s Right Track Foundation, New Delhi, conducted an engaging workshop and interacted with the participants, motivating them on effective communication. The workshop focused on how to bridge the gap in the area of communication, teamwork, leadership and corporate work culture, how to familiarize with various intricacies of managerial ineptness, how to discover an untapped source of positive energy, how to motivate and raise standards of personal excellence, how an effective presentation can project a world-class image to the customers, how to offer insightful ideas to help and keep people motivated and get the best from them and how can you make a difference in your world - no matter who you are and no matter what you do.

EPCH's Mumbai office being inaugurated by Mr. A B Joshi, Textiles Commissioner

Mr. Suhail stressed on the need for time management and proper coordination of team members as the top most priority, which will help them to improve behavioural attitude and aptitude for decision making. A large number of members from Mumbai, Thane and Pune attended and participated in the activities conducted during the seminar. They appreciated the practical experience.

