

Hon'ble Prime Minister addresses Exporters Fraternity on virtual platform gives clarion call for 'Local Goes Global - Make in India for the World'

New Delhi | On 6th August The Hon'ble Prime Minister of India interacted with Heads of Export Promotion Councils and Indian Missions abroad along with stakeholders of the trade & commerce sector, via video conferencing giving a clarion call for 'Local Goes Global - Make in India for the World'.

EPCH organised its video conferencing connectivity along with its member exporters from India Expo Mart at Greater Noida. More than 100 leading exporters were present along with Mr. Raj Kumar Malhotra, Chairman, EPCH; Mr. Ravi K Passi, Immediate Past Chairman, EPCH; Mr. Kamal Soni, Vice-Chairman, EPCH; Mr. Prince Malik, Member-COA, EPCH;

Mr. Arshad Mir, Chairman-Handicraft & Carpet Sector Skill Council & Member-COA, EPCH; Mr. Simrandeep Singh Kohli, Member COA, EPCH; Mr. Avdesh Aggarwal, General Secretary, Moradabad Handicraft Exporters Association, Moradabad; Mr. R K Verma, Executive Director, EPCH; and several member exporters including Mr. Ashok Arora, Mr. Rishi Soni, Mr. Lali Singh, Mr. Guglani, Mr. Deepak Gupta, Mr. Manu Gulati, and Mr. Vineet Bhatia.

The Hon'ble Prime Minister in his address spoke about the importance of Global value chain, Logistics-last mile connectivity, ease of doing business, insurance coverage for exports, rationalisation of export incentive schemes, one district one products, leveraging strength of Indian diaspora overseas, innovate according to the challenges, prioritise exports from state and target overseas markets, explore new markets and identify and innovate new products, market intelligence through Indian missions overseas, stressed on quality & reliability and value added products and encourage start-ups and many more issues. He assured all possible help from the Government to realise the dream of Atmnirbhar Bharat. ■

